

Why would I want to read such a book?

...a long book on a distasteful and contentious subject such as homosexuality??? Perhaps for the same reason the authors wrote such a book - to find out how...

- ◆ America got seduced into sexualizing itself;
- ◆ civil government (through its school system) has become the major promoter for homosexualizing America;
- ◆ the Judeo-Christian worldview stands uniquely among world religions, especially in sex and gender;
- ◆ to help reverse the systematic destruction of the Biblical foundations of Western Civilization;
- ◆ to hold sexual moral standards in a morally collapsing world;
- ◆ to learn Christian apologetics, a winning strategy for addressing volatile issues, especially homosexuality, gracefully, factually, and logically, and showing that God holds the spiritual, moral, and (yes) intellectual high ground;
- ◆ reconnecting feelings to relationships is the key to everything;
- ◆ to do some serious spiritual growing by putting myself at risk on the front lines of spiritual warfare;
- ...and perhaps most important:
- ◆ to better understand homosexual persons, and to reach out and help them.

Why You Cannot Remain Silent --

- ◆ Christians have been persuaded (1) that truth is hostile to love, and (2) that reason is hostile to revelation;
- ◆ Christian witness in the public arena has therefore been all but shut down;
- ◆ for evil to succeed requires only that good people do nothing;
- ◆ the homosexualist agenda is winning because of the ignorance, comfort-seeking, and timidity of "conservatives";
- ◆ the "gay" agenda is not about civil rights, it is riding point for a total make-over of Western Civilization back into paganism;
- ◆ the struggle against homosexuality should be one of the easiest battles the Church has ever had to fight -- if one goes by the publicly available evidence -- which is uniformly at one with the Biblical understanding of human sexuality;
- ◆ God has put into the hands of His people an invincible weapon, the two-edged Sword of the Spirit -- reason and revelation welded back to back, truth spoken in love;
- ◆ God does not call us to "win", but faithfully to speak the truth in love, and let truth and the Lord of truth do their own winning;
- ◆ Homosexuality: Good & Right in the Eyes of God? will help get you well on the road to being an effective witness for Jesus Christ in the areas of human sexuality;
- ◆ God is calling you to stand up and win. So are your children and your grand-children.

Earle Fox, D. Phil., received degrees from Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut (BA in philosophy), from the Episcopal General Theological Seminary, New York City (M. Div.), and from Oxford University in 1964 (D. Phil. in the relation between theology and science). He was ordained to the Episcopal priesthood in 1962. He did a year of clinical chaplaincy training in two mental hospitals, a prison, and a general hospital, and has been a pastoral counselor since 1960. He has published Biblical Inner Healing, a book integrating valid principles of psychology with Biblical faith and practice, explaining how God heals us of our inner hurt and brokenness.

Fox taught from 1968-71 in the religion department, Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, pastored St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in East Haddam, Connecticut, from 1971-81.

In 1989, Fox began lecturing at the Exodus International conferences on the Biblical foundations for the healing of homosexual addiction. He participated in the founding of Transformation Christian Ministries in the Washington, DC, metro area (ministering to persons coming out of homosexuality), and was director of Transformation for a two and a half years.

Now in Alexandria, Virginia, as of May, 2001, he has returned from Transformation to Emmaus Ministries to continue writing Christian apologetics materials, and to offer a seminar to churches on how to teach Biblical sexuality, minister to persons coming out of homosexuality, and deal with the homosexual agenda in the public arena.

David Virtue, M.C.S., DD., was
